By ROBERT DONNELL.

"It was the funniest thing ever," said the bachelor boarder. "You see, Miss Luella and I are going to be married, so I can tell it. Miss Luella took a sudden fancy to hang up her stocking Christmas eve, just for the fun of it. She hung it below the mantel, setting a mouse trap on the turned over edge to hold it there. When she got up in the morning she ran to see if St. Nick had remembered her—and he had.

"When she shrieked I grabbed one of my Indian exercise clubs, wrapped a quilt around me and rushed into her room to kill the burly burglar. She was still shrieking. I looked under the bed, in the clothes closet, everywhere, but found no intruder. I found him in the stocking.

"I drowned him—in the washbowl. Then I took advantage of the occasion to tell Miss Luella that if she actually wanted a real live Christmas present she could have me."

What Became of the Clermont?

The final whereabouts of the historic vessel remains a mystery. It has been asserted that she was finally transported as the Henrietta to the Cape Fear river, North Carolina, where Fulton himself as early as 1813 had suggested the formation of a steam navigation company. Another authority, Mr. J. Seymour Bullock, states that the boat was broken up when further important improvements rendered her antiquated shape and construction unequal to the increased traffic upon the river and that the "ribs" of the hull were used under the wharf in Jersey City, where the Secor foundry built monitors during the civil war.—Alice Cary Sutcliffe in Century.

It is served in pie shaped pieces. Stop-ping at a country hotel, Mr. Washington called for this delicacy. The waiter brought him something that resembled it, but the icing was a quite a shade of white. Mr. Washington took it over, then turned to the waiter and said: "You've made a mistake. I wanted George Washington pie."

The Baby Kangaroo.

One of the rarest and most uncanny zoo babies is the kangaroo. It takes a most observant and careful keeper to discover that there is one at all, for it is microscopic when born, being only one inch from the nose to the extreme tip of its little tail. In appearance it resembles an earthworm, and it is four or five months before it is seen of men.—London Paper.

HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere,—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart. You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out. Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.
